THE CITY.

Book Beer and Free Lunch at the Buffalo Hall today.

The foot bridge at the Hot Springs will be completed so that passengers can cross tonight.

There will be a raffle tonight at George Chapman's for a forty-one Colt's revolver.

WANTED.—Girl for general house work. Apply at the residence of Jefferson Reynolds.

The Lewis boys have seersuckers in all colors, forms, grades and kinds. If you don't believe it, go and see.

Sheriff Romero brought back with him from Watrous a man named Trujillo, whom he committed to jail.

The train from the east last night came in two sections. One was on time and the other was some half hour late.

WANTED.—A girl to do the work in a small family. Apply at this office between the hours of eight and ten in the evening.

Clerks Clancy and Buckhardt passed on south for Santa Fe last night, having concluded their labors at Springer.

Superintendent Dyer no longer has a short hand reporter, as his young man C. C. Kiser left yesterday for his home in Emporia.

The regular train from the south yesterday did not reach our city till 3:55 in the afternoon, having waited in vain for the A. & P. connection at Albuquerque.

A. E. Johnson, in the employ of the railroad company at the Hot Springs, was made happy last evening by the arrival of his wife, daughter and son from Kansas.

Billy Rawlins appeared last night in all the glory of a cowboy's suit, spurs and all. "What Billy lacks in size, he makes up in the largeness of his sentiments and sympathy."

Judge Long, District Clerk R. M. Johnson and Attorney General Wm. Breiden, came in last night from Springer, court having closed at that place for the present term.

Arthur Jilson returned from Colorado last night, and it turns out that Tom Swearer was not the man who was wanted under the name of Frank Reed. Swearer did not return with Jilson.

The new street between the new town and the south and western country, will be opened to travel today. The bridge will not be completed for some days, but the street will otherwise be open for use.

Wells, Fargo & Co.'s wagon is undergoing a renovation at the hands of A. C. Schmidt, the well known east side carriage and buggy builder. It will be just as good as new when it comes forth from his hands.

On yesterday eight of the employees of the Santa Fe company at this place, presented Superintendent Dyer with a set of diamond sleeve buttons—the handsomest the jeweler, Bartlett, could furnish.

Tom Collins, the drummer whom Las Vegas has contributed to the cause of disseminating liquid hardware, yesterday equipped himself with a cow boy's hat. He is now ready to treat with ranchmen direct, and without the intervention of third parties.

The A. & P. special, having failed to make connection with the regular train for the east at Albuquerque, followed after and reached our city at 8 o'clock last evening. It had a large number of passengers, forty of whom took supper at the Depot hotel.

Dan Rhodes, the hackman, was yesterday removing, at his own expense, the rocks and boulders which obstruct Bridge street. Dan has a desire to save his back from the wear and tear caused by bumping against the rocks which obstruct this great highway of the city. Las Vegas does not need to be incorporated—Oh! no; not at all!

There has been some kick on the part of brokers at El Paso. The rates into Old Mexico have been such that merchants at El Paso would have their goods shipped for our neighboring republic, but stop them at the border. To satisfy all parties the roads centering in this rising city of the south have formed a pool and built a tremendous warehouse in which to store goods.

The carload lots yesterday were confined to one house—that of Browne & Manzaneros. They received one of lard, two of corn, and one each of salt, flour and cement, making six in all. A pretty good record for one house in one day during these dull times.

Mrs. Dr. McKinney and her little girl are doing well. An eleven-and-a-half pound girl is no bad indication of the favorable influence of high altitude, pure air, and mountain scenery. Back in Kansas, for instance, a man as small as the doctor, would be represented by a seven pound child, but then Las Vegas is in the region of the Rocky mountains, you know.

A rural poet sends to THE GAZETTE a quantity of verses about the spring and his waiting feet. THE GAZETTE would suggest that in case he has to wait too long for the spring, that he try a tub or a bucket or even a tin pan. In the meantime, while waiting for these extremes to meet, the poetry has been put softly to sleep in the waste basket. Requiescat in peace.

The regular semi monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the Academy on Saturday, May 1, at 3 o'clock p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all who have any interest in the temperance cause; and especially it is desired that the young ladies who are members, and others who wish to join, shall be present at this meeting, to take steps toward organizing a young ladies' auxiliary.

A few more planks are being put upon the bridge between the two towns. That is right. Patch up the old thing. Let all strangers who may happen to see the bridge conclude that our community is one hundred years behind the times. That will keep strangers from investing in Las Vegas, and will have a tendency to cause matters to revert to the good old times before the Americans came to this country.

On Wednesday night last a little boy, called Pet, was run over by the street car just in front of Mrs. Wood's news emporium. He attempted to board the car, and fell. His leg was so entangled between the wheel and the car that the male passengers were compelled to lift the car, rather than back it, to extricate his limb. He was very much bruised but no bones were broken. A great effort has been made to keep the matter secret, but the press has finally got on to it.

A. D. Cronk came in Friday with forty-three two year old bulls, high grade and thorough bred Durhams, and high grade Galloways. Mr. Cronk was formerly a citizen of Las Vegas, but now resides in Kinsley, Kansas. He is a constant subscriber to THE GAZETTE, by which he shows his knowledge of a good thing. This writer has been accustomed to fine cattle. In his county in the states there was a cow for which the owner paid $40,000. At fairs and cattle shows he has often had the casting vote; and he thinks the present lot of bulls quite a good one, and calculated, if purchased, to add much to the improvement of the stock of New Mexico.

Samuel Davis, an old man who has been well known about Las Vegas, not only because of his talking capacity, but equally as much on account of his ability to settle all the knotty questions in morals and politics, has been admitted to the soldiers' home at Dayton, Ohio. Las Vegas loses one of its most profound philosophers. Indeed, there is but one other in our community who can hold a candle to Davis in the matter of profound wisdom, and he is a mechanic—a tailor—who is abundantly able to settle all the labor questions of the day.

During the war, in Kentucky a party of federals today would be succeeded by a party of confederates tomorrow. The latter were more than pleased to dress in the uniform of the former, so that it was by no means an easy matter to tell the nationality of any party when encountered. One day a farmer was captured by a squad. They demanded an expression of his sentiments. Supposing from their appearance that they were Uncle Samuel's boys, he declared heartily his undying devotion to the Union. Unfortunately they were confeds, and on the expression of his views in such unambiguous language, they proceeded to administer a severe drubbing, and let him go. The next day he was captured by a squad of the same external appearances. Remembering his experience of the previous day, he at once and emphatically announced himself as a champion of the southern cause. His captors, however, this time were of entirely different views. So they too administered a castigation. The third day a third party captured his person and demanded his politics. "Now, look here, strangers," said he, "I ain't nothing, and but a d—d little bit of that." Such was the news to be gathered upon the streets of Las Vegas yesterday.

S. M. Fulsom, the new banker whom Las Vegas has loaned to Albuquerque, came up yesterday from the city of sand hills.

PERSONAL.

William Gillerman and family are visiting at Los Alamos.

R. J. Holmes has charge of the office at the new flouring mill.

Ed. Chatham, foreman for Cochran & Curtis, was in the city yesterday.

S. K. Sydes, of the Howry cattle company, has returned from Liberty.

Jim Abercrombie's team came in yesterday with a load of hides and pelts.

John Dinnan was expected to leave yesterday afternoon with supplies for Liberty.

Mrs. J. M. Perez, Bernalillo, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Andres Sena, Los Alamos.

Will C. McGeehee, late salesman for C. H. Spordeder, left yesterday for Kentucky.

Col. Prichard left yesterday for Taos, and J. P. Seller will leave today for Liberty.

Fireman Rogers, who runs between this place and Wallace, is confined to his bed.

Richard Dunn, the champion lumberman of New Mexico, has come in from Gascon mills.

Tom Osborne yesterday took out a load of corn and other seed for his ranch near the Pecos.

E. A. Howard, the Las Vegas florist, went to Watrous yesterday, accompanied by Ralph Oldham.

Kohn Kemp, Denver; W. C. Durand, and G. Revolon, St. Joe, are guests of the St. Nicholas.

George Herden, Sabina Springs, and M. J. Lasar, New York, are among the guests at the Plaza.

F. S. Myrtle and John Wigan came in to attend the dance at the Plaza. They left yesterday for the Tecolote ranch.

D. H. Dotterer, general superintendent of the motive power of the A. & P., passed through from Katon to Albuquerque.

W. T. Rogers, the large tailoring man of Topeka, left last evening for the east with G. W. Stranahan, his man of the measure.

Dr. Cunningham has returned from Cimarron, whither he went to attend the meeting of directors of the Gila cattle company.

R. J. Helm and Henry Peterson came in yesterday from Browne & Manzaneros' ranch. They report but little rain on the other side of the Organ hill.

Rev. Father Navet is in the city from Palo Blanco, formerly assistant parish priest at this place, and to him is due the movement resulting in the east side chapel.

Judge Pierce is now down with the quinsy. He has been quite unfortunate of late in the matter of health, but his host of friends hope soon to see him on duck again.

Captain Fort leaves next week for Little Rock. His wife will meet him at that place, and together they will go to Washington, New York and other cities of the east.

Johnny Curry left last night for Albuquerque. He has been attending court at Springer, having been implicated in the Raton troubles in which his brother was killed.

T. W. Garrard and wife are now in Socorro; W. H. Blocker leaves today for Colonel Stapp's ranch near Liberty, and Noah Ilfeld and wife arrived yesterday afternoon from Albuquerque.

Pierce Murphy has been sick for some days; Rev. James P. Ryan is confined to his bed, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Stonerod is much improved in her physical condition.

O. D. Randall is a pleasant gentleman who travels for the Nonotuck Silk company. Mr. Randall has polished manners, and his matured views show him to be a man of thought as well as travel.

E. R. Merrell, Kansas City; C. H. Holmes and Margetta Twitta, Chicago; W. H. Boyd and wife, Silver City; Henry Spurr, Cleveland, Ohio; A. B. Harris, Sedalia, Mo., are among the guests at the Depot hotel.

Jno. W. Trammel and wife have been registered at the Depot hotel. Mr. Trammel is day clerk in the Harvey eating house at Newton, Kansas; but he has been for a few days assisting in the management at the Raton house.

The Christian natives of the South Sea Islands prepare their Sunday food on Saturday. Not a fire is lighted, neither flesh nor food is baked, nor a tree is climbed, nor a canoe is seen on the water, nor a journey by land undertaken on God's holy day.—Exchange.

Why don't they send missionaries to New Mexico?

A recent writer states that, "in the city of New York, there are 12,000 under twelve years of age; 7,000 of them having no shelter, not knowing at morning where they can sleep at night, and the rest having shelters revolting to behold." The like of this prevails to a greater or less extent in every city in the union.—Ex. Yet from these very cities millions of dollars are sent away every year to carry the gospel to the heathen.

The Atchison Globe states that George R. Peck, who succeeds Judge McCreey as general solicitor of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, at a salary of $12,000 per year, deserves the honor; he is a better lawyer than McCreey, and a better fellow. McCreey will remain in Kansas City as counsel, and will receive $3,000 a year. There is no truth in the report that the Santa Fe is to take the Wabash.

The Evening Mail at Fort Worth, Texas, has this to say about the extension of the Santa Fe road: Yesterday Messrs Sherman, Jackson, Snyder and Phillips, of the Santa Fe road were in the city, making preparations for the beginning of work on the Northern extension from this city, which begins at once. City Engineer King will begin tomorrow morning and run a line from the present terminus to highlands out side the city, to which point Engineer Martin will run his line from Gainsville. There will be no halt in the work on the road, and it may reasonably be expected to see the dirt moved within ten days. After the grading has once commenced it will be pushed ahead at a rate of three-fourths of a mile per day. As showing that business is meant in this matter, it is a pleasure to announce that a contract was awarded this morning to Messrs. Hurley and Roche to grade the first ten miles of the line.
